

Airborne Flying Display Director Competency Framework

Competency 1 - Regulatory Knowledge (Understanding the laws, rules and regulations) AFDD Syllabus ref: 1, 1a, 1b	Competency 2 - Preparedness (Planning & organisation of a Flying Display) (Professionalism) AFDD Syllabus ref: 2, 2b, 3	Competency 3 - Delivery (Execution of a Flying Display) (Decision making and judgement; Adaptability) AFDD Syllabus ref: 3a, 3b, 4	Competency 4 - Collaboration (Working with others) (Teamwork, behavioural and attitude factors) AFDD Syllabus ref: 4a, 4b	Competency 5 - Safety Culture (Attitude to safety) (Integrity) AFDD Syllabus ref: 5,6
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrates a thorough understanding of the ANO relating to Flying Displays. 2. Demonstrates a thorough understanding of SERA / Rules of the Air relating to Flying Displays. 3. Demonstrates a thorough understanding of the key sections of CAP 403 relevant to AFDD's. 4. Demonstrates a thorough understanding of the 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Understands the process for applying to the CAA for a Flying Display and the documentation and timescales required. <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1a. Consistently submits good quality applications and supporting material (e.g. accurate maps and complete risk assessments). 2. Understands the roles and responsibilities of other key Flying Display participants. 3. Can demonstrate the considerations relevant to selecting a 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrates the ability to clearly brief the planned flying display to all relevant parties. 2. Demonstrates the ability to engage and work collaboratively with key interlocutors (air and ground) to safely deliver the Flying Display. 3. Demonstrates the ability to adapt and respond to changes and unexpected events. 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrates a good understanding of the importance of communication with all interested parties for the safe and effective delivery of the Flying Display. 2. Demonstrates a good understanding of the importance of communication and collaboration with the regulatory authorities. 3. Can describe how and when briefings should take place. 4. Demonstrates the ability to brief key information to pilots effectively. 5. Clearly understands the process for issuing warning 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Demonstrates a positive attitude to safety. 2. Demonstrates a good understanding of how to report safety occurrences, incidents and concerns. 3. Has been exposed to the CAA HF modules 4. Attendance at Flying Display symposium (minimum CAP1724 requirement at least once in every three year period). 5. Provides post-event feedback.

Airborne Flying Display Director Competency Framework

roles and responsibilities of an AFDD.	Flying Display venue and display area. 4. Demonstrates a sound understanding of the relationship between the Flying Display and wider Event Safety Planning. 5. Can demonstrate the steps involved in conducting a safe Flying Display. 6. Demonstrates and understanding of the importance of contingency planning. 7. Understands Event Safety Management – through Safety Advisory Group engagement. 8. Demonstrates the knowledge and skills to identify, control and mitigate the hazards associated with a flying display (Risk assessment).		or stop calls and describe follow up actions. 6. Demonstrates the ability to debrief and raise lessons to be incorporated into future events.
---	---	--	--	--

Airborne Flying Display Director Competency Framework

				: